Description

Majestic Eagle fork and ladle serving sets.

Great strength, leadership and prestige. The Eagle is seen as a symbol of power and prestige, has a strong connection to peace, and is considered an important Clan crest and is frequently depicted on totem poles, masks, prints and jewelry. Eagle down, considered sacred, was used in ceremonies to welcome someone in friendship.

Beautifully elegant chromium plating resists staining common in silver plating. Designed by Haida artist Andy Williams. Born into the Raven Clan in 1964. Size - 11.5" long
