Description

Midnight Run. Original Painting by Thompson River artist Carl Stromquist.

Carl is deliberate and focused. Deliberate in his desire to paint with excellence in the quest to earn visions that will generate artwork which honors the spirit and beauty of the wilderness, the teachings of the Creator, and the quest.

Being self-taught, Carl has spent much time studying the works of renowned Native artisans as well as the timeless truths embodied in the elders' stories and legends. From this journey for truth has come his desire to portray the balance and harmony that exists in the Circle of Life. Carl's art is influenced by his profound love and respect for nature.
